

Biographie on Rabbi Carlebach

References on the Rabbi

“מוה"ר אפרים קארלעבאך... הגיע להיות ראוי למורה הוראה ומנהיג בישראל”

הרשל"צ הרב מרדכי אליהו זי"ע

“Harav Ephraim Carlebach is fitting to be a halachic authority and leader within the jewish community” (free translation)

Hrishon Letzion Harav Mordechai Eliyahu O.B.M.

“וכל קהל שתקבלוהו לרב ומנהיג תשבע רצון ממנו בכל הפרטים”

הרב דוד שוחט שליט"א
אב"ד טורונטו קנדה

“He will be of tremendous benefit to any community of which he is a Rov” (free translation)

Harav Dovid Shochat Shlit"א
Av Beis Din, Toronto, Canada

“THE RABBIS' PRESENCE CAN BE A WARM AND WELCOME TOUCH OF COMMUNITY AND HERITAGE...”

Bizmarck Tribune
Bizmarck, North Dakota, USA

“I have learned so much from Rabbi Carlebach and my son now attends a Jewish school. I would look forward to Friday just so he could come to my office and we could talk...”

Janice Roven Esq.
New York, U.S.A.

”On every Friday as Shabbos approached I looked forward to our prayer session as well as listening to Rabbi Carlebach's uplifting and inspirational words. The community of Antwerp is very fortunate indeed to have him”

Ronald Fanta Esq.
Fanta Visa New York ,U.S.A.

>> Rabbi Ephraim Carlebach will G-d willing be moving to Antwerp together with his wife, Sara and child Mushka to serve as the assistant Rabbi of the Shomrei Hadas Community. Rabbi Carlebach's family descends from a long lineage of Rabbis who served their communities in Germany and he looks forward to continuing this legacy.

After studying in Yeshiva's in New York, South Africa and Canada, Rabbi Carlebach continued his studies in the Rabbinical College of America in Morristown, NJ. He was granted Smicha by Rabbi Mordechai Eliyahu, former Sephardic chief Rabbi of Israel and Rabbi Dovid Shochet, Av Beis Din of Toronto, Canada.

Rabbi Carlebach has a great deal of experience in working with communities where he has had much success in creating Jewish pride and strengthening community involvement amongst adults, teens, and children.

He aims to create a variety of programs and services for the community, including holiday programs, learning sessions, cultural programs and community services for both adults and youth.

He looks forward to forging personal relationships with members of the Kehillah and their families.

Mrs Sara Carlebach grew up in London England where her father serves as Rabbi for the Edgware Adath Yisroel community.

With her degree in education she has had much experience in creating and running programs, specifically for children and teens and looks forward to working with her husband in implementing programs for the community and the children of the Tachkemoni School.

Rabbi Carlebach can be reached at the Shomrei Hadass

community: +323.232.01.87 or by email: info@shomre-hadas.be